The library catalog is available online at <https://www.librarycat.org/lib/STJTEMilwaukie>

All you have to do to look up books is type in a couple of words and click “Enter”. Books are arranged on the shelves in a rough order by the first two letters of the author’s last name. (Since it’s a small collection, we haven’t sorted them any more than that.)

In this example, the book is AVAILABLE – so it should be on the shelf.

If you are using the catalog at church, and if you’ve checked out books in the past, you can use this button to check the book out to yourself. You’ll see a box pop up to enter your “Patron ID”. Type in your email address! The book is yours to take home for three weeks. (Don’t worry – we don’t charge fines, although you will get a reminder email to bring it back if you forget!)

If you’ve never checked out a book from church before, click this button and fill in the short form that pops up and we’ll set you up to borrow books. This is also how you can ask a question about a book, such as whether we can hold it for you when you come in on Sunday.

RETURNING BOOKS: Just like before, please drop the books off in the box on the bench in the vestibule. They’ll get checked in and put back on the shelf after church the following Sunday (if not sooner!)

DONATIONS: I’ve been asked if we would like donations of books. The answer is “Yes, but. . .” We don’t have unlimited space. They’ll be reviewed to see if they are appropriate and to check their condition. If we don’t keep donated books, we’ll try to find them a good home elsewhere if possible.
